

St. Francis of Assisi Parish Library

Collection Disclaimer, Lending Policy and Patron Contact Information

Books and other materials in the St. Francis of Assisi Parish Lending Library have either been donated by parishioners or purchased with parish funds. We offer these materials to our parishioners and others as a service. While most of the materials are of a religious or spiritual nature, some deal with non-religious topics, contemporary social problems or controversial philosophical issues. The view, beliefs, and position presented in the books and other materials are those of the authors, publishers, and producers. They do not necessarily reflect the views, beliefs, positions, interpretations or policies of St. Francis Parish, the Diocese of Sacramento, or any other church entity.

The library is set-up on a self-service basis, so that members can help themselves whenever the Parish Center is open. Books and other materials may be borrowed for up to month at no charge. A small late fee of 25 cents per day may be charged for any overdue materials. In addition, the borrower agrees to provide us with current contact information (below), so that we contact you with a friendly reminder should that be needed. Books and other materials may be renewed for an additional month, provided that no one else has requested the item. If a borrowed item is lost or damaged, please notify the Library Coordinator of the loss or damage, so that arrangements can be made for replacement or repair.
